GEN. WALLACE'S SPEECH.—The reader will find on the outside a right-toned speech from Brig. Gen. Wallace, who has evinced his soldierly qualities in the hardest fought battles of the west. Though a democrat, he talks like a soldier and a man; and if his views should be adopted and put in practice by some of our higher military commanders, the war would soon assume a different and healthier aspect.

DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING.—During a storm Saturday the Baptist church in Stoughton was struck by lightning. The fluid passed down the steeple, tearing it to pieces, and set the roof on fire. The fire was soon extinguished, though the church was damaged to the amount of $200. There was no rod on the building.

LOST.—July 14th, 1862, a pair of black pants, on the Galena road between J. B. Carl's and this city, or in the city. They were rolled up in a newspaper. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving them at this office. ju15dawl*

JANESVILLE, July 14, 1862.

LOST.—A pocket memorandum book, containing a number of photographs, and an order from J. S. Lane on W. A. Lawrence, which will be of no benefit to any person except the owner. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at the Gazette office. ju14d2d

SUPREME COURT.—In this court, yesterday, the following cases in the first circuit were argued:

4. Parker vs King. Submitted on case and brief.

1. Jolly vs Single. Argued by Abbott, Gregory and Pauney for appellant and by Wakeley & Vilas for respondent.

8. Rock County Bank vs Wooliscroft. Argued by B. B. Eldredge for appellant and submitted for respondents on printed brief.

JANESVILLE WORK.—A most creditable specimen of home manufacture may be seen in the wagon used by W. G. Wheelock in the transaction of his business in the country. The wood and iron work was done by Eager & Hemming, and the painting by Mr. Andrews. We take pride in referring to this piece of work as an evidence of what good mechanics can do when an order is given them.

MILTON ACADEMY.—The commencement exercises of this academy commenced Saturday evening, July 5th, with a lecture by the principal, the Rev. Mr. Whitford, selecting for his subject "The Student's Model." Sunday the annual sermon was preached by the Rev. N. V. Hull, of Alfred, N. Y. Monday afternoon the Rev. R. Z. Mason, president of Lawrence University, lectured before the Philomathean society, on the "Influence of science on the growth of religious ideas." In the evening a large audience were entertained with vocal and instrumental music. Tuesday afternoon was devoted to the anniversary exercises by the students and graduates, and music by the Ft. Atkinson band. These exercises consisted of essays by ten ladies, and orations by five gentlemen. Five ladies graduated. The absence of male graduates is accounted for by the enlistment of students in the army.

This academy is in a flourishing condition, and its commencement exercises are always eagerly anticipated and well enjoyed by the intelligent community in which it is located.

CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH IN NORFOLK.—The fourth was celebrated in Norfolk by the Union men and our military force. Col. Saunders, of the 19th regiment, was the orator, and his oration is spoken of very highly.

CANADA BANKS TO SUSPEND SPECIE PAYMENT.—The Buffalo Express learns that the Canada banks will probably suspend specie payment to-day (Monday) in consequence of the drain to which their vaults are subjected by the demand from this side.

Why cannot postage stamps be used for change? The United States issue stamps of one, three, five, ten, twelve, fifteen, and twenty cents. An agreement among business men to receive them, would make the hoarding of change unprofitable. The postmaster might in the present emergency produce authority to redeem in treasury notes stamps when presented in sums of five dollars.

BROWNSON DENOUNCED.—The Roman Catholic Bishop of Virginia has issued a decree against O. P. Brownson's Review, declaring that it is no reliable exponent of Catholic doctrines and principles.

The appointment of Flag-officer Wilkes to take command of the James river flotilla, in place of Flag-officer Goldsboro, who is to return to Norfolk, has been rendered necessary by sickness of the latter, who is troubled with gout and needs quiet.

A lady, recently from the south, reports the marriage of Miss Margaret Howell, the sister of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, to George W. Curtis Lee, of the confederate army, eldest son of General Lee, and heir to Arlington, by the will of his grandfather, Mr. Curtis.

RETURN OF A REBEL CONGRESSMAN.—We learn that Sam. H. Woodson, who abandoned his seat in congress to join the fortunes of the rebels, and who accompanied their army south with a lot of negroes, has returned to Independence, his former home. It is said that his further connection with the army not being deemed profitable, he was forced to fly from Dixie to avoid the conscription act—and probably run for congress again in the Independence district!—St. Joseph (Mo.) Journal.

Cough, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

CHAS. J. MARTIN, President. A. F. WILMARTH, Vice President.

JOHN M'GEE, Secretary.

E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,

for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Willmarth, vice-president, and John McGee, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of ONE MILLION DOLLARS, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and mortgages $910,210.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,636. Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148.00, taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses $535,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constantly increasing SECURITY at the smallest possible expense, and that this is obtained WITHOUT ANY LIABILITY WHATEVER TO THE INSURED.

The Net Surplus of the company, January 1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, after reserving a sum sufficient to re-insure all outstanding risks, was $428,237.24.

The company having reserved the right to issue non-participating policies, is prepared to issue such policies to persons desiring them, at rates as LOW AS ANY COMPANY can insure, and at the same time offer security worthy of the name.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A STIRRING SPEECH.

How to Conduct the War---Employ the Negroes and Forage on the Enemy.

On Wednesday night, about 11 o'clock, a number of Indianians tendered Major General Lew Wallace a serenade at his quarters at the National Hotel in Washington. An unusually large concourse was present on the occasion.

After referring to the compliments of a serenade and the conspicuous part borne in the war by the Hoosier state, he proceeded to say:

In the beginning of the war we rested under a cloud (the Buena Vista stain). No less a person than Jefferson Davis had published to the world, and had printed on the pages of history, that we were cowardly [A voice—"That isn't so."] No it isn't, as we have proved. When this war began, therefore, we took our banners and flung them to the breeze; each man of us did it with a distinct resolution that it was to be the redemption of our state honor or it was to be death. ["That's so," and applause.] I had the honor to lead a regiment among the first to the field. Pardon me for referring to an event in the history of that regiment. When the banners were given us in front of our capitol, receiving it on the part of my regiment, I had them kneel down, and with uplifted hands swear to redeem the good name of Indiana. ["Good," and applause.] And they knelt down, one and all, and took the solemn oath. [A voice—"and they have kept it."] Yes they have. [Loud applause.] Not many weeks ago, the old flag under which we took the oath, was given back, and put away in the hall from which it was taken. At Donelson its stripes were shot ragged with bullets. [Applause.] At Shiloh the true blue Union was shot out of it by a shell. [Applause.] It was but a tattered frogment of its former self and its original glory when given back. Wherever it floated we had victory. [Applause.] I am no politician. [Cries of "good for that," and "dont want any now-a-days."] Probably for a regular speech I had been obliged to some of my political friends if they had made it for me. ["Keep them in the dark," and laughter.] If it is expected that I am to speak on subjects of a political character to-night, I know I should have been obliged for some of them to have performed the task for me. If I touch upon them, bear me witness that I speak of them not as a politician, but as a soldier. [Applause.]

I was at the senate chamber to-day. They were discussing the policy of the war. The question in agitation was, or what at least seemed to be the paramount question, "Should the negro be used or not?" [Cries of "Yes," "yes," and "No," "no."] Well, I find my audience precisely as I found the senate. [Laughter and applause.]. Some said "yes," and some said "no"—just as you are saying. [Laughter.] A voice—"Will you give us a soldier's opinion? Yes, let me speak about that as a soldier, ["Good"] not as a politician. ["Don't want any politicians."] He would be a poor soldier, in my opinion, who would fail to use every element of war which God Almighty gave him, if he could use it to his advantage. [Prolonged and enthusiastic cheering.] I think you concur with me in that at least. [Cries of "Certainly we do," "Every sensible man will."] Now, then, if we find the negro before us, or around us, as we advance, planted there by some accident—Providence may have had a great deal to do with it—and we can find his services available, would not that general be a crazy man who would refuse to use them? ["Most assuredly," and applause.] So it seems to me, and my position may be plainly stated upon that. If by the services of a negro I can make my soldiers comfortable; if by the services of a band of negroes I can relieve them of onerous duties and hard work; if I can make them available to dig my trenches, ["That's right"] shall I not do it? [Cries of "Yes, yes." Loud applause.] Yes, and I will do it. [Vociferous cheering.] A voice—["Soldiers will follow you to the death for that." Another voice—"Put no arms in their hands." Several voices—"Oh yes, as many as they want."] Now, then, let me speak about that. [Cries of "All right now." "You are a mighty good boy."] If I accept of the services of a negro, and he works well and faithfully, fed by us, clothed by us, and he stands by my gallant regiment, relieving them of the hard duties I have mentioned, would it be human, would it not be cruel, to put him into the army, in the way of shot, and yet give him nothing with which to defend himself? [Cries of "That's so," and loud and continued cheering.] My fellow citizens, I speak as a soldier all the time, recollect. I am not viewing this matter in its political aspect, for I have as much prejudice against the negro politically, and am as much opposed to slavery agitation as any of you can be. Yet where he can be made vailable, let us make him so.

To every brigade I would have a regiment of working negroes—to every company a fair complement of cooks. [Applause.] I would feed them, I would organize them, and to each one who did good service, I would, at the end of the war, give him or her freedom. [Immense cheering.] Let me make one remark further. The common impression has been that this was a war in which we had all the advantages. Now, then, listen to my practical experience. I tell you it has not been such a war of inequality in our favor as many suppose. I have visited plantations in the course of marches. I have asked, where is the man of the house? He is in the army. I have looked around; I have seen his harvest field full of stalwart negroes. They reap his harvest, and they put it away as well and as carefully as if the man had been at home and not in the army; and what was the result? He had plenty to eat—a superabundance—some of which he was sure would come to the sustenance of that southern army. There are supposed to be 4,000,000 of negroes. Do you suppose that Jefferson Davis, if we went humbly to him, beseeching such a thing, proposing to him: You have 4,000,000 of operatives belonging to your people in the south; under our policy we may not touch them—not molest them. We will leave them upon your farms to work; will you agree to leave us 4,000,000 of operatives home on our farms, and in our shops, unmolested? Do you suppose that Jefferson Davis would agree to that? [No!] Yet he would have to agree to it before equality of advantage was established between us. [Applause.] Jefferson Davis is a better manager, because he is a desperate man. [Applause.] Our army upon the James river is said to be in danger. How true that is I do not know. I hope it is false. Well, if that is true, and they come back, what becomes of the good government that those of us who have been in the field have been fighting for? To say the least it becomes imperilled. Now, then, what do you think of the legislator who will sit in the halls of our congress and be afraid to use the power of the government to sustain the government? ["That's it." "Hit 'em."]

Jeff Davis early in this war impressed men. He was not afraid. He saw the necessity of it, and he being a bold man resorted to impressment. We want soldiers, and we want them quickly. There is a way to get them. In time they will come by volunteering, but the exigencies of the moment are so great it is dangerous to wait. Will this congress before it adjourns—and the time of its adjournment, I am told approaches—will it have the courage to leave behind on the statute book a drafting law? I fear not. ["Yes, they will."] And they ought by all means, because the time may come when every strong arm in the north and in the border states, too, may be required to sustain the government. [True!] We have been dealing in affectations. Let us discard them. We have been accused of vanity by the people of the old world. All people are vain. It was natural that we should be. Let us not carry our vanity, however, to the point of destruction. If need be, I repeat again, let us summon to the battle field every man in the land who can carry a gun or stand beneath the flag. [Loud applause.] Oh, if I could get a little backbone into those who are governing us. [Applause.] If I could but animate them to use the great powers that God has given us in one year the very results of the prosperity he has given us. If I could but stimulate them to the point of courage when they dare to do their duty as our soldiers in the field dare to march to the cannon's mouth, and I could induce them to make WAR, that is all I ask. [Loud applause.] And there may be some around us now. I turn to them, and in the name of the soldiery, the regiments I command, and say that I want to be allowed the privilege, when I march through secession districts, to make my soldiers comfortable on secession property. [Applause. A voice—"Remove McDowell."]

[Halleck, Buell and McClellan are far worse than McDowell in this respect.]

But I never again want to lead a column of troops through a land rich with comforts and luxuries belonging to the enemy of my government without having the privilege of giving a portion of them at least to the gallant soldiers who follow me. [Good, and applause.] In conclusion, my fellow citizens, I say again I am very grateful for this honor.

He retired amid great applause.

IMPERIAL WINE

BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhiliarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machine work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of,

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Official Paper of the City.

Nashville in Danger.

The surrender of our forces at Murfreesboro, thirty-two miles south of Nashville, renders the situation of the latter city very precarious, and possibly, before this, the enemy are in possession of it. How Gov. Harris, Breckenridge, and other rebel leaders, could concentrate five or six thousand troops in the center of Tennessee, one hundred miles north of Gen. Halleck's line, is a question not easily solved. Perhaps that astute commander can explain it, without referring to order number three, but we feel quite sure if that had never been promulgated, and loyal blacks encouraged to give information, the misfortune which has overtaken our troops at Murfreesboro would never have taken place. Our military commanders learn slowly, but they are approaching a crisis when they must change their policy, or they will have no armies to command.

From the Fifth Regiment.

We have a letter from a member of Capt. Wheeler's company dated Harrison's Landing, July 7. He says that there was no great sacrifice in the fifth regiment during the recent battles, and that company E has not lost a man, as he believes; although there is some doubt about the fate of Wm. M. Folsom, of Footville. He was placed in an ambulance on the road, since which time they have not heard from him; notwithstanding this, he is very likely all right.

The Emancipation Scheme.

The president's message to congress, and the draft of the bill he sends with it, presents a very plain proposition. Will the nation pay for all the slaves in such states as abolish slavery, either immediately or gradually? We do not know what congress may say to this, but as a citizen we say no, most emphatically. According to the president's proposition, the state is to receive remuneration for every slave enumerated in the census of 1860. No deduction is made for the slaves of rebels. The president has mistaken the feelings of the northern people if he thinks they will favor any such unjust scheme as this, to tax them to pay for bondmen already made free by the act of their masters. The idea of compensating loyal men for their slaves, and imposing heavy additional burdens upon our people at this time of disaster, brought upon us by a slaveholders' rebellion, is sufficiently distasteful, without including the human chattels of the vilest rebels. It will not do—the proposition will fail. Our president, we think, could better subserve the public interest by using the power he possesses to put down a rebellion which has grown to monstrous proportions on his hands, while he has been playing conciliation with the border states. It would have been better if those states had seceded in the beginning, and left the nation free from the influence of their baleful policy. It is better to let them take this position now, as open foes, than to distract attention at this time, when the republic needs all its money, and the best judgment and energies of all its sons, in a death struggle with its enemies.

The Charges Against Gen. Metchell.

Gen. Buell has sent voluminous charges to the war department against Gen. Mitchell. It is understood they relate to pillage by his soldiers in the town of Athens, Ala., which is said to be for the Union; and that he is guilty of insubordination. General Mitchell strongly denies all charges of this nature. It is probable that he is guilty of believing and acting upon the principle that the rebels are enemies, and very likely, he and his men have hurt some of them. This not being the theory of Buell, an attempt is made to deprive Gen. Mitchell of his command.

☞ We observe by the Chicago Tribune, that Col. Turchin of the Illinois 19th, and Lieut. Col. Scott of the same regiment, are about to throw up their commissions, because Gen. Buell deprived Col. T. of his brigade and sent his regiment and himself to the rear, to guard a railroad. The Tribune does not rebuke these officers for proposing to resign in the face of the enemy, but rather justifies them. Not so, the other day, when a distinguished general asked to be relieved from a command where he had been wantonly disgraced. Then the Tribune was fierce in its patriotic denunciation; now it excuses and commends an absolute abandonment of the service by an officer who was reduced from the command of a brigade to that of a regiment. It may be that Col. Turchin was so misused that in honor he could not hold his commission, but this does not make the Tribune consistent.

Who will Paint this Picture?—The Times' correspondent, among his incidents of the retreat of our army, says: "The wife of a wounded German was carrying along her husband's equipments, musket and all, which were strapped upon her in true military order, while he, with crutch and cane, hobbled by her side, smoking and chatting as if all was the most common thing in the world."

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

PHILIDELPHIA, July 14.

The Bulletin of this city has copies of the Richmond Enquirer of the 9th, and of the Petersburg Express of the 8th inst.

MOBILE, July 8.—Passengers by the flag of truce steamer Natchez, from New Orleans, report that Baton Rouge has been recaptured by the rebel General Van Dorn, and that he has taken 1,500 federal prisoners.

RICHMOND, July 9.—One thousand Yankees reached Warrenton, yesterday. The Petersburg Express says that Gen. McClellan has 100,000 men.

WASHINGTON, July 14.

The senators and representatives from the border slave states, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their request furnished by him with propositions in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee to frame a reply, which will be considered at an adjourned meeting of these gentlemen.

MEMPHIS, July 12.

Gen. Grant has issued an order requiring the families of all persons connected with the confederate army or government to leave the city within five days or take an oath that they have not and will not furnish information to the enemy. This sweeping order is in consequence of constant communication between persons in the rebel army and their friends here. The order caused considerable excitement.

Refugees from Helena, Ark., say that four to five hundred rebels attacked Gen. Curtis' advance, and were utterly routed. Col. Fitch is still at St. Charles. It is reported that he had a sharp skirmish with the rebels, in which the latter were routed.

VICKSBURG, July 10.

Firing quite rapid this evening. The enemy replied with rifled guns. No great damage on either side.

President Davis issued a congratulatory order to his soldiers on their success in the recent brilliant victories, which, under Divine Omnipotence, they have lately won. As president of the confederate states, he tenders them the thanks of the country.

CAIRO, July 14.

Special to Chicago Journal.—The canal at Vicksburg is completed. The water does not run through the canal. It is not deep enough at this stage of water. The river is falling. They have commenced to deepen the canal three feet.

An occasional bomb is still thrown at the city. The rebels have planted new batteries of eighty guns, which are now in position. Van Dorn, with a force of 40,000, is close to the city.

Our fleet will not take the place till they have forces to hold it.

The steamer Robert Allen, laden with commissary stores for Col. Fitch, was fired into forty miles below Memphis, on Thursday. She was also fired into twenty miles up White river, killing one man and mortally wounding another.

On Sunday, the 6th, a detachment of the 24th and 43d Indiana, on the west side of White river, attacked 500 Texas rangers, near Aberdeen, killing 19, and wounding and taking 84 prisoners. Squads of rangers all over Arkansas are impressing and killing Union men and burning cotton.

The rebels are strongly intrenched at Duval's Bluff. Col. Fitch is not able to engage them.

Near Memphis, cotton and sugar are found buried in caves, and hid in old houses, woods and barns, away from guerrillas. In no case have cotton-owners destroyed their cotton.

Three hundred men have been enlisted in Memphis, and enough for two companies have arrived from Arkansas. These men complain that nothing is done with the rebels when arrested. They say government must be more severe. The rebels do not respect kindness.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The bill which the senate passed to-day for the admission of Western Virginia is identical with the bill before the house on the same subject. It differs from Mr. Wade's bill in not including the valley of Virginia in the limits of the new state, and in not requiring a new constitutional convention. The bill as passed requires the late Wheeling convention to re-assemble and insert a clause in the constitution reading as follows: "No person born within the limits of this state, after March 4th, 1863, shall ever be held as slaves, nor after such time shall slaves be permitted to come into the state for permanent residence therein: Provided, That all the slaves within the limits of said state at the time aforesaid under ten years of age shall be free when twenty-one, and all over ten and under twenty-one shall be free when twenty-five. When this clause shall have been ratified by a popular vote, the president shall issue a proclamation stating the fact, and sixty days thereafter the act of admission shall take effect."

Mr. Carlile made a violent opposition to the passage of the bill in this shape. He wanted the slavery question "let alone." His colleague, Mr. Willey, was equally warm for its admission under those provisions. Notwithstanding this unexpected opposition of Carlile as well as Trumbull and others, the bill passed by a handsome majority.

It is thought its chances in the house are pretty good.

MEMPHIS, July 12—via CAIRO, 14th.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The gunboat Conestoga arrived last evening from White river, and later from Vicksburg. She brings no especial news from the latter place. She left St. Charles, Ark., on White river, on Sunday, the 6th inst. Gen. Fitch was still there.

On the forenoon of Sunday Gen. Fitch and a portion of the 46th Indiana, numbering 400 men, started into the interior to take dispatches to Gen. Curtis, or discover his whereabouts. They were followed by Col. Farren of the 3d Indiana, with 300 or 400 more men, as a rear guard. They penetrated only eight miles from White river, when they suddenly came upon Hindman's pickets, who they fired upon and drove in, and then rushed forward, soon coming upon the main body consisting of six regiments, numbering less than 3,000 rebels, who, however, although surprised, quickly formed and gave battle. The Indianians fought bravely at immense odds, and were about being flanked by the Arkansas troops, when Lieut. Col. Farren's force came down like an avalanche to their relief, outflanked the confederates, and with the aid of Gen. Fitch and the 46th drove them from the field. The fight lasted three hours. Not strong enough to pursue, Gen. Fitch ordered a retrograde, and in a few hours had his troops back to the river and on transports prepared for an attack. Gen. Hindman is believed to be in the vicinity with a large force. Gen. Fitch lost four men only. Twenty-four dead rebels were found on the field; thirty were wounded, and forty taken prisoners. Hindman's entire army is estimated at 15,000.

Gen. Fitch lately executed two of the rebel hostages, taken some time since, for the good behavior of the rebel guerrillas. He promised to hang them if any of his men were killed.

The first engineer of the Lexington was shot while sitting at a port-hole. General Fitch took off two of the citizens and hung them up before the face and eyes of their neighbors—a just but severe retribution for harboring a set of cut-throats in their vicinity.

It is rumored there was a fight by Gen. Curtis with Hindman's forces, within the past few days, near Des Arc, in which Hindman was severely handled and driven off the field. This needs confirmation.

Provost Marshal Gen. Hillyer has published a parole, which parties can sign who are willing, and be released from leaving the city, according to order No. 13, issued yesterday. It requires them to pledge themselves that they have not, since the occupation of Memphis by the federals, given aid or information to the confederate army, and that they will not, while they reside there, oppose or conspire against the civil or military authority of the United States, nor give aid, information or encouragement to the confederate army, or any one connected therewith.

It is supposed that many will sign it.

Six of Jeff. Thompson's soldiers came within our lines yesterday to take the oath, and want to go north. They report Jeff. near Hernando, but not doing much.

Sixteen men in one squad were brought yesterday to the provost marshal, by Capt. G. B. Simonds, commander of the mortar fleet, to take the oath of allegiance. They all came in from the surrounding country in Arkansas, for the purpose of representing the condition of the state. It is fearful. There are no crops. Everything eatable is taken by the guerrillas. The people earnestly desire occupation by the United States troops.

There is no news from General Curtis' army.

Order No. 13 has been issued by Provost Marshal Gen. Hillyer, requiring the families of persons in the confederate army, of persons in the employ of the confederate government, and of persons holding any office and claiming allegiance to said confederate government, to move out beyond our lines within five days, a safe conduct being given them upon application to the provost marshal. This will necessitate the removal of quite a large class of the citizens of Memphis.

KEOKUK, IOWA, July 14.

Sunday night a party of rebels entered Memphis, Missouri, breaking open stores, driving Union men out, and capturing some state troops stationed there. Reports by the evening train are to the effect that the rebels were advancing on Athens. The people of Athens are deserting the place and fleeing to Canton and Farmington. Three hundred convalescent soldiers leave leave on a special train to-night for Athens.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 13.

Two rousing war meetings were held in this city last night. The speech of the evening was made by Brig. Gen. Dumont, lately in command at Nashville. He declared it necessary to seize and confiscate rebel property, and even use the negro, in order to crush the rebellion. The general is a strong democrat of the unconditional Union school.

The response to the recent call for troops far exceeds all expectations. From present indications, the regiments will be very speedily raised.

WASHINGTON, July 14.

The president has submitted to congress a brief message enclosing a draft of a bill to compensate any state which may abolish slavery within its limits, and respectfully recommending its passage. The following is the message:

Fellow Citizens of the Senate and House of Respresentatives:—Herewith is a draft of the bill to compensate any state which may abolish slavery within its limits, the passage of which substantially as presented, I respectfully and earnestly recommend.

Signed, ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled: That whenever the president of the United States shall be satisfied that any state shall have lawfully abolished slavery within and throughout such state, either immediately or gradually, it shall be the duty of the president, assisted by the secretary of the treasury, to prepare and deliver to each state an amount of six per cent interest bearing bonds of the United States, equal to the aggregate value, at —— dollars per head, of all the slaves within such state, as reported by the census of 1860. The whole amount for any one state to be delivered at once if the abolishment be immediate, or in equal annual instalments if it be gradual; interest to begin running on each bond at the time of delivery, and not before.

And be it further enacted, That if any state having received any such bonds shall at any time afterwards, by law, reintroduce or tolerate slavery within its limits, contrary to the act of abolishment, upon which such bonds shall have been received, said bonds so received by said state shall at once be null and void, in whose several hands they may be, and which state shall refund to the states all interest which may have been paid on such bonds.

MEMPHIS, July 11.

Special to N. Y. Tribune.—Arkansas refugees report that Gen. Curtiss has been attacked and completely cut to pieces.

A Vicksburg dispatch of the 4th states that the bombardment is tremendous and unceasing. Should the invaders land they will drive them back at the point of the bayonet. Vicksburg cannot be taken.

BALTIMORE, July 14.

The American says we learn from an escaped Union man from Richmond, Tuesday last, that the rebel troops in and around the city, prior to the recent battles, were estimated at from 217,000 to 220,000.—Large reinforcements from the direction of Petersburg had been arriving for the previous 10 days, said to be from the coast, but our informant could not ascertain whether a portion of them were of Beauregard's army.

Beauregard had been in Richmond several weeks suffering from a severe attack of fever, and was still at the Spottswood House confined to his room.

A gunboat on the plan of the Merrimac, though much smaller, is rapidly approaching completion at Richmond, though great difficulty is experienced in obtaining iron for her armor.

The forces of Gen. Jackson had moved off, it was thought, towards Fredericksburg, and it was said would strike a blow in the valley.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

BALTIMORE, July 14.

The following correspondence is occasioned by the charges in the Louisville Journal:

Major Gen. Mitchell—Dear Sir: Your attention is hereby called to an extract from the Louisville Journal, of the 10th instant. Those of us who know you personally, know that the charge is utterly false. The world needs only your denial over your own signature.

Yours, very truly, B. F. CAMP.

WASHINGTON, July 14.

To Hon. B. F. Camp: I have your note of the 12th instant, calling my attention to an editorial in the Louisville Journal of the 10th, in which I am charged with conduct not only injurious to the government, but disgraceful to humanity. As there are no specifications in this charge, I can only pronounce it to be, in the broadest sense, unjust, unfounded, false and calumnious. I have never in all my life consciously done an injury to any human being. As to deeds of cruelty and guilt, my entire nature revolts at both, and my countrymen can never be persuaded that I have been guilty of either. I demand the specifications, pronouncing the charges utterly and absolutely false.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
O. M. MITCHELL.

WASHINGTON, July 14.

Col. F. P. Blair left Washington for Missouri to proceed at once to raise a brigade.

The members from the border states met, but did not conclude their busines to-night. It seems certain, however, that while they with perhaps half a dozen exceptions, will not authorize the president's emancipation scheme, they will nevertheless propose its respectful consideration by their states.

BOSTON, July 14.

An order appropriating three hundred thousand dollars from the city treasury, to be expended in the payment of bounties and other expenses, in raising the city's quota under the recent proclamation of the president, was passed this p. m., by both branches of the city government.

NEW YORK, July 15.

The Fredericksburg correspondent of the Herald says: Mayor Slaughter returned from Richmond the day before yesterday, completely disgusted with the affairs at the rebel headquarters. He was sent by the citizens last week to procure the release of Gen. Reynolds, but to his great disappointment he was coolly informed that the general could not be released nor seen, and that the secretary of war was totaly invisible. After vainly endeavoring to obtain an interview with the secretary, Mayor Slaughter filed his petition and returned to Fredericksburg.

The Ricemond papers are received here every other day, within thirty hours of their issue, and there is not the least doubt but the rebels have free and uninterrupted communication with parties within our lines. Deserters come in occasionally, who report that the authorities in Richmond have taken possession of almost every house for hospital purposes.

NASHVILLE, July 14.

Special to Herald.—The Unionists lost $30,000 worth of army stores at Murfreesboro. The Union forces engaged were the 3d Minnesota, Col. Lester; six companies of the 9th Michigan, Col. Parkhurst, 300 strong; the 3d battalion of the 7th Pennsylvania cavalry, 225; Hewitt's battery, 60 men; the 4th Kentucky, and 25th Illinois, about 1,400 men. The rebel force consisted of one regiment of mounted infantry, a regiment of Texan Rangers, and Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee cavalry, between three and four thousand, mostly armed with carbines and shot guns. Their loss in killed and wounded is heavier than ours. The 7th Pennsylvania lost in killed, wounded and missing, 200 men. The only officers escaped, as far as reported, are Capt. Andrus, Capt. McCormick and Lieut. Moody. The commissary and quartermaster departments were recently replenished, all of which has fallen into the hands of the enemy. Capt. Rounds, provost marshal of Murfreesboro, and guard, shot nine rebels before surrendering.

The rebel Gov. Harris and Andrew Ewing were known to be at Beensheba Springs near Sparta a few days since, organizing the raid on Murfeesboro, which may, it is apprehended, be extended to the capital of the state. The public are still in a great state of excitement, many families having left. The Louisville cars, this a. m., were crowded with a large number of speculators and adventurers. It is reported that Gen. John C. Breckibridge, Col. Forest and Col. Rains of Nashville, commanded the rebel forces at Murfreesboro. It is also reported that they have taken La Virgin, 15 miles from Nashville, and that Gen. Kirby is advancing on Nashville from Chatanooga with 15,000 men. Murfreesboro was barricaded by bales of hay and the federal shells set fire to many of the houses. Col. Lester is falling back towards Nashville.

Union reinforcements are coming up by special trains. The 28th Kentucky has just arrived. They were cheered as they passed through the streets. The secessionists confidentally expect the arrival of the rebel forces, some time to night. Batteries have been placed on Capital Hill and other points. There may be music in Nashville before this reaches the north. Col. Lester surrendered at Murfeesboro, at four o'clock p. m., the Minnesota 3d and Hewitt's battery included. The latter for want of ammunition. Men are lying on the sidewalks asleep, holding their horses bridles in their hands expecting every moment to be called into action.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

PHILADELPHIA, July 15—2 P. M.

The reported mutiny among the rebels at Fort Delaware is believed to be untrue. Gentlemen from there last evening say that they heard nothing of any disturbance.

TORONTO, July 15.

The statement in some of the United States papers that the Canadian banks were about to suspend specie payment, is without the least foundation. They were never stronger than at present. Their last official statement shows over $7,000,000 in gold on hand, against $4,000,000 at the same time last year. The total assets are over $60,000,000. Liabilities $31,000,000.

WASHINGTON, July 15.

The committee of ways and means has a recommendation before them urging the necessity of congressional legislation to relieve the specie market. No official action of the committee has yet been taken upon the subject, but it is known that some of the members are opposed to the project, preferring to leave the matter to cure itself, and others are in favor of issuing $2.50 treasury notes.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 14.

A spy was captured yesterday afternoon by some telegraph men.

Our gunboats have been shelling the woods along the banks of the river. Only one gun was seen to be fired by the rebels.

A schooner, seized at Harrison's Landing yesterday by order of Gen. McClellan, was sent to Baltimore, with all her cargo. She had liquors aboard, and belongs to sutlers.

There was a skirmish at Williamsburg, Friday, between federal and rebel pickets. Three rebels were killed and seven taken prisoners. About 200 laborers came down from the army on their way north. Gens. Richardson and Gorman paid a flying visit here, to-day. They return immediately to the army. Hospitals are being rapidly constructed at Hampton. Cols. Forney of Louisiana and Williams of Virginia, and Capt. Murphy of Alabama, have arrived here from Harrison's Landing, they were wounded and taken prisoners at Williamsburg.

NEW YORK, July 15.

Flour market active and 5c better; 4,50a4,70 super western, 5,00a5,10 common to medium extra western.

Wheat market 1c better, and more doing; 1,05a1,09 choice Milwaukee club, 1,21a1,124 winter red western.

Stocks lower and dull, but since the board are firmer. There will be no second board. American gold 1,16¼.

DEATH OF CAPT. W. MOORE.—The Black River Falls Banner gives the following account of the death of Capt. Moore, commanding company G, 10th Wisconsin volunteers:

On the 3d day of July the company were at Larkinsville, Alabama, guarding a railroad track. It is the custom, before the passage of every train, to detail men to patrol the track and see that all is right. On this day private Coleman, brother-in law of Capt. Moore, and another soldier, were detailed for this duty. They did not return at the usual hour, and did not come in that night.

The next morning, July 4th, Capt. Moore, with thirty-three men, were detailed to go out and look for Coleman and patrol the track. There are bushes and second growth timber along the sides of the track, in some spots quite thick. The captain divided his men into two squads of sixteen each, and placed them on each side of the track, while he and the other soldier took the track a little in advance of the others, and all proceeded on their way. They had gone three or four miles at about eight o'clock in the morning, the captain and man some distance agead. Suddenly two rebels sprung up, one on each side of the track, with their guns cocked and covering the captain, and demanded their surrender. As they were taken at a disadvantage, they had no alternative but to do as ordered. They were then commanded to sit down on the track, with their guns upright, as though engaged in conversation—the object of the rebels being apparently to decoy on the remainder of our squad, supposing that there were probably a half dozen out. Capt. Moore had a gun and was in his shirt sleeves, and his rank was therefore unknown to the rebels.

Soon the rebels discovered our men approaching, and saw that they were outnumbered; they rose and said to Capt. Moore and his boy, "follow us." The boy started to go, and said, "Come on, captain." Upon hearing this, the rebels turned and fired, with fatal effect upon Capt. Moore. He was shot directly in the breast. He sank down, and as our boys rushed up, he said, "Boys, I'm hurt; follow the enemy." The boy with the captain escaped unhurt. Our soldiers fired upon the rebels, killing three and took seven prisoners.

From papers and a muster roll found with the rebels, it appears that they were of a party of guerrillas. On one of them was found a note from Coleman to Capt. Moore, saying that he was taken prisoner the day before, and was safe. The fate of his comrade is unknown. There were also found letters implicating some of the strongly pretended Union men of that vicinity, men whose property had been protected at our hands, who were secretly organizing these guerrilla bands against us. Among these were a Dr. Buchanan and Mr. Larkins.

The death of Capt. Moore is an unprovoked assassination, and should be avenged with direful vengeance.

FOURTH OF JULY ADDRESS AT BELOIT.—The oration delivered by J. C. Converse, Esq., at Beloit, on the fourth of July, is published in the Courier, which thus speaks of it:

The address will amply repay perusal by those who did not have an opportunity to hear it delivered, and indeed, by those who did. As a speaker Mr. Converse has but few equals in force and effectiveness of style, and upon this occasion, he seemed to have entered into the spirit of his subject with more than his usual earnestness.—Avoiding the frothy style of oratory heretofore so common on such occasions, he reviewed the past and present conditions of the country, with a fidelity admirably in keeping with the trying ordeal through which the country is passing. That his earnest appeal in behalf of the Union was not made to listless hearers, is evident from the profound attention with which it was listened to throughout, and the unusual approbation which is expressed concerning it.

MILITARY ITEMS.—Commissions have been issued to 1st Lieut. Albert E. Smith as captain of company B, 8th regiment, vice Conger, resigned. (Promoted for distinguished coolness and bravery in action.)

Sergt. D. Conger as 2d lieutenant company B, 8th regiment, vice Webster, resigned.

Sergt. D. A. Kennedy, 2d lieutenant company I, 8th regiment, vice Lathrop, resigned.

Byron W. Telfair, 2d lieutenant 20th regiment.

NEW METHOD OF GIVING CHLOROFORM.—At a recent meeting of the obstetrical society in London, Dr. Simpson described a plan of administering chloroform which he has adopted in preference to that at present in use. The present method is to fold up a handkerchief and pour into the hollow a quantity of chloroform, and then hold it at some distances from the face, so as to admit of atmospheric air being inhaled with the vapor. The new plan is to lay a single layer of handkerchief over the face, and let the chloroform fall on it drop by drop. The advantages are these: 1. That there is less danger to the patient from the small quantity applied at a time. 2. That anæthesai is more speedily produced.—3. That the quantity of chloroform required is less. Various gentlemen who had made trial of the plan confirmed the value of this process; and Dr. Young, in particular, stated that he kept a patient narcotized for ten hours with two ounces and a half of chloroform.

ILLINOIS FISH POND.—In the report of the committee on farms of the Illinois state agricultural society, we find the following account of an artificial fish pond on the premises of Messrs. Overman & Mann, of Bloomington:

Fifty by one hundred feet scooped out of a low place in the prairie, and which is supplied with water from the mole drains running through the depressions of the prairie swells. The pond is six feet deep, and stocked with catfish, some of which are now fifteen inches long, bass, silversides, perch and horse fish. Thousands of our prairie farms can have just as good ponds with a trifling outlay, and which will at the same time furnish an abundant supply of water. Until we saw this pond we had no idea such a luxury could be had upon our farms, but now we are positive that it is of easy attainment and the thing must be done. The earth must be either wheeled or hauled out; and this must be done in winter or other leisure time; a small hand pump will be needed to keep the water out while excavating the pond.

FIVE BROTHERS IN ONE REGIMENT KILLED.—Five brothers in the 5th Vermont regiment, of the name of Clayton, were killed in the recent Virginia battles.

A HEAVY IRON BLAST.—The miners are now drilling a shaft in the Burt mountain, belonging to the Lake Superior company, for blasting purposes, which it is intended to be from thirty-six to forty feet deep and six inches in diameter. When finished an immense quantity of powder will be inserted, and a slow match applied, the effect of which will be to throw down nearly the whole side of the mountain. The labor required to bring about this result will be better understood when it is known that the shaft is being drilled through almost pure iron.—Lake Superior Journal.

Mr. T. F. Wells, of Boston, has just completed a contract with the government by which he agrees to raise the vessels sunk at Gosport navy yard and in Hampton roads. The value of property sunk, upon which he proposes to operate, amounts to over a million of dollars. Mr. Wells is to commence at once, and is to receive 45 per cent. salvage from the government on the value of all property recovered. The undertaking involves an outlay by the contractor of sixty thousand dollars before commencing the work. He will employ something like two hundred men, among whom will be twenty divers, who will descend to the sunken ships in the Wells & Gowen submarine armor. Such vessels as are not raised will be blasted with gunpowder, and all the material that is of value recovered.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A STIRRING SPEECH.

How to Conduct the War---Employ the Negroes and Forage on the Enemy.

On Wednesday night, about 11 o'clock, a number of Indianians tendered Major General Lew Wallace a serenade at his quarters at the National Hotel in Washington. An unusually large concourse was present on the occasion.

After referring to the compliments of a serenade and the conspicuous part borne in the war by the Hoosier state, he proceeded to say:

In the beginning of the war we rested under a cloud (the Buena Vista stain). No less a person than Jefferson Davis had published to the world, and had printed on the pages of history, that we were cowardly [A voice—"That isn't so."] No it isn't, as we have proved. When this war began, therefore, we took our banners and flung them to the breeze; each man of us did it with a distinct resolution that it was to, be the redemption of our state honor, or it was to be death. ["That's so," and applause.] I had the honor to lead a regiment among the first to the field. Pardon me for referring to an event in the history of that regiment. When the banners were given us in front of our capitol, receiving it on the part of my regiment, I had them kneel down, and with uplifted hands swear to redeem the good name of Indiana. ["Good," and applause.] And they knelt down, one and all, and took the solemn oath. [A voice—"and they have kept it."] Yes they have. [Loud applause.] Not many weeks ago, the old flag under which we took the oath, was given back, and put away in the hall from which it was taken. At Donelson its stripes were shot ragged with bullets. [Applause.] At Shiloh the true blue Union was shot out of it by a shell. [Applause.] It was but a tattered frogment of its former self and its original glory when given back. Wherever it floated we had victory. [Applause.] I am no politician. [Cries of "good for that," and "dont want any now-a-days."] Probably for a regular speech I had been obliged to some of my political friends if they had made it for me. ["Keep them in the dark," and laughter.] If it is expected that I am to speak on subjects of a political character to-night, I know I should have been obliged for some of them to have performed the task for me. If I touch upon them, bear me witness that I speak of them not as a politician, but as a soldier. [Applause.]

I was at the senate chamber to-day. They were discussing the policy of the war. The question in agitation was, or what at least seemed to be the paramount question, "Should the negro be used or not?" [Cries of "Yes," "yes," and "No," "no."] Well, I find my audience precisely as I found the senate. [Laughter and applause.]. Some said "yes," and some said "no"—just as you are saying. [Laughter.] A voice—"Will you give us a soldier's opinion? Yes, let me speak about that as a soldier, ["Good"] not as a politician. ["Don't want any politicians."] He would be a poor soldier, in my opinion, who would fail to use every element of war which God Almighty gave him, if he could use it to his advantage. [Prolonged and enthusiastic cheering.] I think you concur with me in that at least. [Cries of "Certainly we do," "Every sensible man will."] Now, then, if we find the negro before us, or around us, as we advance, planted there by some accident—Providence may have had a great deal to do with it—and we can find his services available, would not that general be a crazy man who would refuse to use them? ["Most assuredly," and applause.] So it seems to me, and my position may be plainly stated upon that. If by the services of a negro I can make my soldiers comfortable; if by the services of a band of negroes I can relieve them of onerous duties and hard work; if I can make them available to dig my trenches, ["That's right"] shall I not do it? [Cries of "Yes, yes." Loud applause.] Yes, and I will do it. [Vociferous cheering.] A voice—"Soldiers will follow you to the death for that." Another voice—"Put no arms in their hands." Several voices—"Oh yes, as many as they want."] Now, then, let me speak about that. [Cries of "All right now." "You are a mighty good boy."] If I accept of the services of a negro, and he works well and faithfully, fed by us, clothed by us, and he stands by my gallant regiment, relieving them of the hard duties I have mentioned, would it be human, would it not be cruel, to put him into the army, in the way of shot, and yet give him nothing with which to defend himself? [Cries of "That's so," and loud and continued cheering.] My fellow citizens, I speak as a soldier all the time, recollect. I am not viewing this matter in its political aspect, for I have as much prejudice against the negro politically, and am as much opposed to slavery agitation as any of you can be. Yet where he can be made vailable, let us make him so.

To every brigade I would have a regiment of working negroes—to every company a fair complement of cooks. [Applause.] I would feed them, I would organize them, and to each one who did good service, I would, at the end of the war, give him or her freedom. [Immense cheering.] Let me make one remark further. The common impression has been that this was a war in which we had all the advantages. Now, then, listen to my practical experience. I tell you it has not been such a war of inequality in our favor as many suppose. I have visited plantations in the course of marches. I have asked, where is the man of the house? He is in the army. I have looked around; I have seen his harvest field full of stalwart negroes. They reap his harvest, and they put it away as well and as carefully as if the man had been at home and not in the army; and what was the result? He had plenty to eat,—a superabundance—some of which he was sure would come to the sustenance of that southern army. There are supposed to be 4,000,000 of negroes. Do you suppose that Jefferson Davis, if we went humbly to him, beseeching such a thing, proposing to him: You have 4,000,000 of operatives belonging to your people in the south; under our policy we may not touch them—not molest them. We will leave them upon your farms to work; will you agree to leave us 4,000,000 of operatives home on our farms, and in our shops, unmolested? Do you suppose that Jefferson Davis would agree to that? [No!] Yet he would have to agree to it before equality of advantage was established between us. [Applause.] Jefferson Davis is a better manager, because he is a desperate man. [Applause.] Our army upon the James river is said to be in danger. How true that is I do not know. I hope it is false. Well, if that is true, and they come back, what becomes of the good government that those of us who have been in the field have been fighting for? To say the least it becomes imperilled. Now, then, what do you think of the legislator who will sit in the halls of our congress and be afraid to use the power of the government to sustain the government? ["That's it." "Hit 'em."]

Jeff Davis early in this war impressed men. He was not afraid. He saw the necessity of it, and he being a bold man resorted to impressment. We want soldiers, and we want them quickly. There is a way to get them. In time they will come by volunteering, but the exigencies of the moment are so great it is dangerous to wait. Will this congress before it adjourns—and the time of its adjournment, I am told approaches—will it have the courage to leave behind on the statute book a drafting law? I fear not. ["Yes, they will."] And they ought by all means, because the time may come when every strong arm in the north and in the border states, too, may be required to sustain the government. [True!] We have been dealing in affectations. Let us discard them. We have been accused of vanity by the people of the old world. All people are vain. It was natural that we should be. Let us not carry our vanity, however, to the point of destruction. If need be, I repeat again, let us summon to the battle field every man in the land who can carry a gun or stand beneath the flag. [Loud applause.] Oh, if I could get a little backbone into those who are governing us. [Applause.] If I could but animate them to use the great powers that God has given us in one year the very results of the prosperity he has given us. If I could but stimulate them to the point of courage when they dare to do their duty as our soldiers in the field dare to march to the cannon's mouth, and I could induce them to make war, that is all I ask. [Loud applause.] And there may be some around us now. I turn to them, and in the name of the soldiery, the regiments I command, and say that I want to be allowed the privilege, when I march through secession districts, to make my soldiers comfortable on secession property. [Applause. A voice—"Remove McDowell."]

[Halleck, Buell and McClellan are far worse than McDowell in this respect.]

But I never again want to lead a column of troops through a land rich with comforts and luxuries belonging to the enemy of my government without having the privilege of giving a portion of them at least to the gallant soldiers who follow me. [Good, and applause.] In conclusion, my fellow citizens, I say again I am very grateful for this honor.

He retired amid great applause.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,
ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.
THEIR EQUAL!
We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every Intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are
UNSURPASSED!
For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.
For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.
As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.
These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.
Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

GEN. WALLACE'S SPEECH.—The reader will find on the outside a right-toned speech from Brig. Gen. Wallace, who has evinced his soldierly qualities in the hardest fought battles of the west. Though a democrat, he talks like a soldier and a man; and if his views should be adopted and put in practice by some of our higher military commanders, the war would soon assume a different and healthier aspect.

DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING.—During a storm Saturday the Baptist church in Stoughton was struck by lightning. The fluid passed down the steeple, tearing it to pieces, and set the roof on fire. The fire was soon extinguished, though the church was damaged to the amount of $200. There was no rod on the building.

LOST.—July 14th, 1862, a pair of black pants, on the Galena road between J. B. Carl's and this city, or in the city. They were rolled up in a newspaper. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving them at this office. jul5dawl*

JANESVILLE, July 14, 1862.

LOST.—A pocket memorandum book, containing a number of photographs, and an order from J. S. Lane on W. A. Lawrence, which will be of no benefit to any person except the owner. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at the Gazette office. jul4d2d

SUPREME COURT.—In this court, yesterday, the following cases in the first circuit were argued:

4. Parker vs King. Submitted on case and brief.

1. Jolly vs Single. Argued by Abbott, Gregory and Panney for appellant and by Wakeley & Vilas for respondent.

8. Rock County Bank vs Wooliscroft. Argued by B. B. Eldredge for appellant and submitted for respondents on printed brief.

JANESVILLE WORK.—A most creditable specimen of home manufacture may be seen in the wagon used by W. G. Wheelock in the transaction of his business in the country. The wood and iron work was done by Eager & Hemming, and the painting by Mr. Andrews. We take pride in referring to this piece of work as an evidence of what good mechanics can do when an order is given them.

MILTON ACADEMY.—The commencement exercises of this academy commenced Saturday evening, July 5th, with a lecture by the principal, the Rev. Mr. Whitford, selecting for his subject "The Student's Model." Sunday the annual sermon was preached by the Rev. N. V. Hull, of Alfred, N. Y. Monday afternoon the Rev. R. Z. Mason, president of Lawrence University, lectured before the Philomathean society, on the "Influence of science on the growth of religious ideas." In the evening a large audience were entertained with vocal and instrumental music. Tuesday afternoon was devoted to the anniversary exercises by the students and graduates, and music by the Ft. Atkinson band. These exercises consisted of essays by ten ladies, and orations by five gentlemen. Five ladies graduated. The absence of male graduates is accounted for by the enlistment of students in the army.

This academy is in a flourishing condition, and its commencement exercises are always eagerly anticipated and well enjoyed by the intelligent community in which it is located.

CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH IN NORFOLK.—The fourth was celebrated in Norfolk by the Union men and our military force. Col. Saunders, of the 19th regiment, was the orator, and his oration is spoken of very highly.

CANADA BANKS TO SUSPEND SPECIE PAYMENT.—The Buffalo Express learns that the Canada banks will probably suspend specie payment to-day (Monday) in consequence of the drain to which their vaults are subjected by the demand from this side.

Why cannot postage stamps be used for change? The United States issue stamps of one, three, five, ten, twelve, fifteen, and twenty cents. An agreement among business men to receive them, would make the hoarding of change unprofitable. The postmaster might in the present emergency produce authority to redeem in treasury notes stamps when presented in sums of five dollars.

BROWNSON DENOUNCED.—The Roman Catholic Bishop of Virginia has issued a decree against O. F. Brownson's Review, declaring that it is no reliable exponent of Catholic doctrines and principles.

The appointment of Flag-officer Wilkes to take command of the James river flotilla, in place of Flag-officer Goldsboro, who is to return to Norfolk, has been rendered necessary by sickness of the latter, who is troubled with gout and needs quiet.

A lady, recently from the south, reports the marriage of Miss Margaret Howell, the sister of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, to George W. Curtis Lee, of the confederate army, eldest son of General Lee, and heir to Arlington, by the will of his grandfather, Mr. Curtis.

RETURN OF A REBEL CONGRESSMAN.—We learn that Sam. H. Woodson, who abandoned his seat in congress to join the fortunes of the rebels, and who accompanied their army south with a lot of negroes, has returned to Independence, his former home. It is said that his further connection with the army not being deemed profitable, he was forced to fly from Dixie to avoid the conscription act—and probably run for congress again in the Independence district! —St. Joseph (Mo.) Journal.

A Slight Cold,

Cough, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.
Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY,

CHAS. J. MARTIN, President. A. F. WILMARTH, Vice President.
JOHN M'GEE, Secretary.
E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,
for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Willmarth, vice-president, and John McGee, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of ONE MILLION DOLLARS, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,636. Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148.00, taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses $535,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

CONTINENTAL INS. COMPANY,
No. 102 Broadway, New York.
Cash Capital $500,000. Surplus $571,518.26
Total Assets $1,071,518.26.

TO OUR PATRONS.
We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constantly increasing SECURITY at the smallest possible expense, and that this is obtained WITHOUT ANY LIABILITY WHATEVER TO THE INSURED.

Scrip Dividends Declared to Customers.

The Net Surplus of the company, January 1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, after reserving a sum sufficient to re-insure all outstanding risks, was $428,287.24.
The company having reserved the right to issue non-participating policies, is prepared to issue such policies to persons desiring them, at rates as LOW AS ANY COMPANY can insure, and at the same time offer security worthy of the name.

Nashville in Danger.

The surrender of our forces at Murfreesboro, thirty-two miles south of Nashville, renders the situation of the latter city very precarious, and possibly, before this, the enemy are in possession of it. How Gov. Harris, Breckenridge, and other rebel leaders, could concentrate five or six thousand troops in the center of Tennessee, one hundred miles north of Gen. Halleck's line, is a question not easily solved. Perhaps that astute commander can explain it, without referring to order number three, but we feel quite sure if that had never been promulgated, and loyal blacks encouraged to give information, the misfortune which has overtaken our troops at Murfreesboro would never have taken place. Our military commanders learn slowly, but they are approaching a crisis when they must change their policy, or they will have no armies to command.

From the Fifth Regiment.

We have a letter from a member of Capt. Wheeler's company dated Harrison's Landing, July 7. He says that there was no great sacrifice in the fifth regiment during the recent battles, and that company E has not lost a man, as he believes; although there is some doubt about the fate of Wm. M. Folsom, of Footville. He was placed in an ambulance on the road, since which time they have not heard from him; notwithstanding this, he is very likely all right.

The Emancipation Scheme.

The president's message to congress, and the draft of the bill he sends with it, presents a very plain proposition. Will the nation pay for all the slaves in such states as abolish slavery, either immediately or gradually? We do not know what congress may say to this, but as a citizen we say no, most emphatically. According to the president's proposition, the state is to receive remuneration for every slave enumerated in the census of 1860. No deduction is made for the slaves of rebels. The president has mistaken the feelings of the northern people if he thinks they will favor any such unjust scheme as this, to tax them to pay for bondmen already made free by the act of their masters. The idea of compensating loyal men for their slaves, and imposing heavy additional burdens upon our people at this time of disaster, brought upon us by a slaveholders' rebellion, is sufficiently distasteful, without including the human chattels of the vilest rebels. It will not do—the proposition will fail. Our president, we think, could better subserve the public interest by using the power he possesses to put down a rebellion which has grown to monstrous proportions on his hands, while he has been playing conciliation with the border states. It would have been better if those states had seceded in the beginning, and left the nation free from the influence of their baleful policy. It is better to let them take this position now, as open foes, than to distract attention at this time, when the republic needs all its money, and the best judgment and energies of all its sons, in a death struggle with its enemies.

The Charges Against Gen. Mitchell.

Gen. Buell has sent voluminous charges to the war department against Gen. Mitchell. It is understood they relate to pillage by his soldiers in the town of Athens, Ala., which is said to be for the Union; and that he is guilty of insubordination. General Mitchell strongly denies all charges of this nature. It is probable that he is guilty of believing and acting upon the principle that the rebels are enemies, and very likely, he and his men have hurt some of them. This not being the theory of Buell, an attempt is made to deprive Gen. Mitchell of his command.

☞ We observe by the Chicago Tribune, that Col. Turchin of the Illinois 19th, and Lieut. Col. Scott of the same regiment, are about to throw up their commissions, because Gen. Buell deprived Col. T. of his brigade and sent his regiment and himself to the rear, to guard a railroad. The Tribune does not rebuke these officers for proposing to resign in the face of the enemy, but rather justifies them. Not so, the other day, when a distinguished general asked to be relieved from a command where he had been wantonly disgraced. Then the Tribune was fierce in its patriotic denunciation; now it excuses and commends an absolute abandonment of the service by an officer who was reduced from the command of a brigade to that of a regiment. It may be that Col. Turchin was so misused that in honor he could not hold his commission, but this does not make the Tribune consistent.

Who will Paint this Picture?—The Times' correspondent, among his incidents of the retreat of our army, says: "The wife of a wounded German was carrying along her husband's equipments, musket and all, which were strapped upon her in true military order, while he, with crutch and cane, hobbled by her side, smoking and chatting as if all was the most common thing in the world."

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

PHILADELPHIA, July 14.

The Bulletin of this city has copies of the Richmond Enquirer of the 9th, and of the Petersburg Express of the 8th inst.

MOBILE, July 8.—Passengers by the flag of truce steamer Natchez, from New Orleans, report that Baton Rouge has been recaptured by the rebel General Van Dorn, and that he has taken 1,600 federal prisoners.

RICHMOND, July 9.—One thousand Yankees reached Warrenton, yesterday. The Petersburg Express says that Gen. McClellan has 100,000 men.

WASHINGTON, July 14.

The senators and representatives from the border slave states, after their interview with the President on Saturday, were at their request furnished by him with propositions in writing upon the subject of emancipation, according with the suggestions heretofore officially communicated to congress. The propositions have been referred to a committee to frame a reply, which will be considered at an adjourned meeting of these gentlemen.

MEMPHIS, July 12.

Gen. Grant has issued an order requiring the families of all persons connected with the confederate army or government to leave the city within five days or take an oath that they have not and will not furnish information to the enemy. This sweeping order is in consequence of constant communication between persons in the rebel army and their friends here. The order caused considerable excitement.

Refugees from Helena, Ark., say that four to five hundred rebels attacked Gen. Curtis' advance, and were utterly routed. Col. Fitch is still at St. Charles. It is reported that he had a sharp skirmish with the rebels, in which the latter were routed.

VICKSBURG, July 10.

Firing quite rapid this evening. The enemy replied with rifled guns. No great damage on either side.

President Davis issued a congratulatory order to his soldiers on their success in the recent brilliant victories, which, under Divine Omnipotence, they have lately won. As president of the confederate states, he tenders them the thanks of the country.

CAIRO, July 11.

Special to Chicago Journal.—The canal at Vicksburg is completed. The water does not run through the canal. It is not deep enough at this stage of water. The river is falling. They have commenced to deepen the canal three feet.

An occasional bomb is still thrown at the city. The rebels have planted new batteries of eighty guns, which are now in position. Van Dorn, with a force of 40,000, is close to the city.

Our fleet will not take the place till they have forces to hold it.

The steamer Robert Allen, laden with commissary stores for Col. Fitch, was fired into forty miles below Memphis, on Thursday. She was also fired into twenty miles up White river, killing one man and mortally wounding another.

On Sunday, the 6th, a detachment of the 24th and 43d Indiana, on the west side of White river, attacked 500 Texas rangers, near Aberdeen, killing 19, and wounding and taking 84 prisoners. Squads of rangers all over Arkansas are impressing and killing Union men and burning cotton.

The rebels are strongly intrenched at Duval's Bluff. Col. Fitch is not able to engage them.

Near Memphis, cotton and sugar are found buried in caves, and hid in old houses, woods and barns, away from guerrillas. In no case have cotton owners destroyed their cotton.

Three hundred men have been enlisted in Memphis, and enough for two companies have arrived from Arkansas. These men complain that nothing is done with the rebels when arrested. They say government must be more severe. The rebels do not respect kindness.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The bill which the senate passed to-day for the admission of Western Virginia is identical with the bill before the house on the same subject. It differs from Mr. Wade's bill in not including the valley of Virginia in the limits of the new state, and in not requiring a new constitutional convention. The bill as passed requires the late Wheeling convention to re assemble and insert a clause in the constitution reading as follows: "No person born within the limits of this state, after March 4th, 1863, shall ever be held as slaves, nor after such time shall slaves be permitted to come into the state for permanent residence therein: Provided, That all the slaves within the limits of said state at the time aforesaid under ten years of age shall be free when twenty-one, and all over ten and under twenty-one shall be free when twenty-five. When this clause shall have been ratified by a popular vote, the president shall issue a proclamation stating the fact, and sixty days thereafter the act of admission shall take effect."

Mr. Carlile made a violent opposition to the passage of the bill in this shape. He wanted the slavery question "let alone." His colleague, Mr. Willey, was equally warm for its admission under those provisions. Notwithstanding this unexpected opposition of Carlile as well as Trumbull and others, the bill passed by a handsome majority.

It is thought its chances in the house are pretty good.

MEMPHIS, July 12—via CAIRO, 14th.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The gunboat Conestoga arrived last evening from White river, and later from Vicksburg. She brings no especial news from the latter place. She left St. Charles, Ark., on White river, on Sunday, the 6th inst. Gen. Fitch was still there.

On the forenoon of Sunday Gen. Fitch and a portion of the 46th Indiana, numbering 400 men, started into the interior to take dispatches to Gen. Curtis, or discover his whereabouts. They were followed by Col. Farren of the 3d Indiana, with 300 or 400 more men, as a rear guard. They penetrated only eight miles from White river, when they suddenly came upon Hindman's pickets, who they fired upon and drove in, and then rushed forward, soon coming upon the main body consisting of six regiments, numbering less than 3,000 rebels, who, however, although surprised, quickly formed and gave battle. The Indianians fought bravely at immense odds, and were about being flanked by the Arkansas troops, when Lieut. Col. Farren's force came down like an avalanche to their relief, outflanked the confederates, and with the aid of Gen. Fitch and the 46th drove them from the field. The fight lasted three hours. Not strong enough to pursue, Gen. Fitch ordered a retrograde, and in a few hours had his troops back to the river and on transports prepared for an attack. Gen. Hindman is believed to be in the vicinity with a large force. Gen. Fitch lost four men only. Twenty-four dead rebels were found on the field; thirty were wounded, and forty taken prisoners. Hindman's entire army is estimated at 15,000.

Gen. Fitch lately executed two of the rebel hostages, taken some time since, for the good behavior of the rebel guerrillas. He promised to hang them if any of his men were killed.

The first engineer of the Lexington was shot while sitting at a port-hole. General Fitch took off two of the citizens and hung them up before the face and eyes of their neighbors—a just but severe retribution for harboring a set of cut-throats in their vicinity.

It is rumored there was a fight by Gen. Curtis with Hindman's forces, within the past few days, near Des Arc, in which Hindman was severely handled and driven off the field. This needs confirmation.

Provost Marshal Gen. Hillyer has published a parole, which parties can sign who are willing, and be released from leaving the city, according to order No. 13, issued yesterday. It requires them to pledge themselves that they have not, since the occupation of Memphis by the federals, given aid or information to the confederate army, and that they will not, while they reside there, oppose or conspire against the civil or military authority of the United States, nor give aid, information or encouragement to the confederate army, or any one connected therewith.

It is supposed that many will sign it.

Six of Jeff. Thompson's soldiers came within our lines yesterday to take the oath, and want to go north. They report Jeff. near Hernando, but not doing much.

Sixteen men in one squad were brought yesterday to the provost marshal, by Capt. G. B. Simonds, commander of the mortar fleet, to take the oath of allegiance. They all came in from the surrounding country in Arkansas, for the purpose of representing the condition of the state. It is fearful. There are no crops. Everything eatable is taken by the guerrillas. The people earnestly desire occupation by the United States troops.

There is no news from General Curtis' army.

Order No. 13 has been issued by Provost Marshal Gen. Hillyer, requiring the families of persons in the confederate army, of persons in the employ of the confederate government, and of persons holding any office and claiming allegiance to said confederate government, to move out beyond our lines within five days, a safe conduct being given them upon application to the provost marshal. This will necessitate the removal of quite a large class of the citizens of Memphis.

KEOKUK, IOWA, July 14.

Sunday night a party of rebels entered Memphis, Missouri, breaking open stores, driving Union men out, and capturing some state troops stationed there. Reports by the evening train are to the effect that the rebels were advancing on Athens. The people of Athens are deserting the place and fleeing to Canton and Farmington. Three hundred convalescent soldiers leave leave on a special train to-night for Athens.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 13.

Two rousing war meetings were held in this city last night. The speech of the evening was made by Brig. Gen. Dumont, lately in command at Nashville. He declared it necessary to seize and confiscate rebel property, and even use the negro, in order to crush the rebellion. The general is a strong democrat of the unconditional Union school.

The response to the recent call for troops far exceeds all expectations. From present indications, the regiments will be very speedily raised.

WASHINGTON, July 11.

The president has submitted to congress a brief message enclosing a draft of a bill to compensate any state which may abolish slavery within its limits, and respectfully recommending its passage. The following is the message:

Fellow Citizens of the Senate and House of Respresentatives:—Herewith is a draft of the bill to compensate any state which may abolish slavery within its limits, the passage of which substantially as presented, I respectfully and earnestly recommend.

Signed, ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled: That whenever the president of the United States shall be satisfied that any state shall have lawfully abolished slavery within and throughout such state, either immediately or gradually, it shall be the duty of the president, assisted by the secretary of the treasury, to prepare and deliver to each state an amount of six per cent interest bearing bonds of the United States, equal to the aggregate value, at —— dollars per head, of all the slaves within such state, as reported by the census of 1860. The whole amount for any one state to be delivered at once if the abolishment be immediate, or in equal annual instalments if it be gradual; interest to begin running on each bond at the time of delivery, and not before.

And be it further enacted, That if any state having received any such bonds shall at any time afterwards, by law, reintroduce or tolerate slavery within its limits, contrary to the act of abolishment, upon which such bonds shall have been received, said bonds so received by said state shall at once be null and void, in whose several hands they may be, and which state shall refund to the states all interest which may have been paid on such bonds.

MEMPHIS, July 11.

Special to N. Y. Tribune.—Arkansas refugees report that Gen. Curtiss has been attacked and completely cut to pieces.

A Vicksburg dispatch of the 4th states that the bombardment is tremendous and unceasing. Should the invaders land they will drive them back at the point of the bayonet. Vicksburg cannot be taken.

BALTIMORE, July 14.

The American says we learn from an escaped Union man from Richmond, Tuesday last, that the rebel troops in and around the city, prior to the recent battles, were estimated at from 217,000 to 220,000.—Large reinforcements from the direction of Petersburg had been arriving for the previous 10 days, said to be from the coast, but our informant could not ascertain whether a portion of them were of Beauregard's army.

Beauregard had been in Richmond several weeks suffering from a severe attack of fever, and was still at the Spottswood House confined to his room.

A gunboat on the plan of the Merrimac, though much smaller, is rapidly approaching completion at Richmond, though great difficulty is experienced in obtaining iron for her armor.

The forces of Gen. Jackson had moved off, it was thought, towards Fredericksburg, and it was said would strike a blow in the valley.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

BALTIMORE, July 14.

The following correspondence is occasioned by the charges in the Louisville Journal:

Major Gen. Mitchell—Dear Sir: Your attention is hereby called to an extract from the Louisville Journal, of the 10th instant. Those of us who know you personally, know that the charge is utterly false. The world needs only your denial over your own signature.

Yours, very truly, B. F. CAMP.

WASHINGTON, July 14.

To Hon. B. F. Camp: I have your note of the 12th instant, calling my attention to an editorial in the Louisville Journal of the 10th, in which I am charged with conduct not only injurious to the government, but disgraceful to humanity. As there are no specifications in this charge, I can only pronounce it to be, in the broadest sense, unjust, unfounded, false and calumnious. I have never in all my life consciously done an injury to any human being. As to deeds of cruelty and guilt, my entire nature revolts at both, and my countrymen can never be persuaded that I have been guilty of either. I demand the specifications, pronouncing the charges utterly and absolutely false.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
O. M. MITCHELL.

WASHINGTON, July 14.

Col. F. P. Blair left Washington for Missouri to proceed at once to raise a brigade.

The members from the border states met, but did not conclude their busines to-night. It seems certain, however, that while they with perhaps half a dozen exceptions, will not authorize the president's emancipation scheme, they will nevertbless propose its respectful consideration by their states.

BOSTON, July 14.

An order appropriating three hundred thousand dollars from the city treasury, to be expended in the payment of bounties and other expenses, in raising the city's quota under the recent proclamation of the president, was passed this p. m., by both branches of the city government.

NEW YORK, July 15.

The Fredericksburg correspondent of the Herald says: Mayor Slaughter returned from Richmond the day before yesterday, completely disgusted with the affairs at the rebel headquarters. He was sent by the citizens last week to procure the release of Gen. Reynolds, but to his great disappointment he was coolly informed that the general could not be released nor seen, and that the secretary of war was totaly invisible. After vainly endeavoring to obtain an interview with the secretary, Mayor Slaughter filed his petition and returned to Fredericksburg.

The Ricemond papers are received here every other day, within thirty hours of their issue, and there is not the least doubt but the rebels have free and uninterrupted communication with parties within our lines. Deserters come in occasionally, who report that the authorities in Richmond have taken possession of almost every house for hospital purposes.

NASHVILLE, July 11.

Special to Herald.—The Unionists lost $30,000 worth of army stores at Murfreesboro. The Union forces engaged were the 3d Minnesota, Col. Lester; six companies of the 9th Michigan, Col. Parkhurst, 300 strong; the 3d battalion of the 7th Pennsylvania cavalry, 225; Hewitt's battery, 60 men; the 4th Kentucky, and 25th Illinois, about 1,400 men. The rebel force consisted of one regiment of mounted infantry, a regiment of Texan Rangers, and Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee cavalry, between three and four thousand, mostly armed with carbines and shot guns. Their loss in killed and wounded is heavier than ours. The 7th Pennsylvania lost in killed, wounded and missing, 200 men. The only officers escaped, as far as reported, are Capt. Andrus, Capt. McCormick and Lieut. Moody. The commissary and quartermaster departments were recently replenished, all of which has fallen into the hands of the enemy. Capt. Rounds, provost marshal of Murfreesboro, and guard, shot nine rebels before surrendering.

The rebel Gov. Harris and Andrew Ewing were known to be at Beensheba Springs near Sparta a few days since, organizing the raid on Murfeesboro, which may, it is apprehended, be extended to the capital of the state. The public are still in a great state of excitement, many families having left. The Louisville cars, this a. m., were crowded with a large number of speculators and adventurers. It is reported that Gen. John C. Breckinridge, Col. Forest and Col. Rains of Nashville, commanded the rebel forces at Murfreesboro. It is also reported that they have taken La Virgin, 15 miles from Nashville, and that Gen. Kirby is advancing on Nashville from Chatanooga with 15,000 men. Murfreesboro was barricaded by bales of hay and the federal shells set fire to many of the houses. Col. Lester is falling back towards Nashville.

Union reinforcements are coming up by special trains. The 28th Kentucky has just arrived. They were cheered as they passed through the streets. The secessionists confidentally expect the arrival of the rebel forces, some time to night. Batteries have been placed on Capital Hill and other points. There may be music in Nashville before this reaches the north. Col. Lester surrendered at Murfeesboro, at four o'clock p. m., the Minnesota 3d and Hewitt's battery included. The latter for want of ammunition. Men are lying on the sidewalks asleep, holding their horses bridles in their hands expecting every moment to be called into action.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

PHILADELPHIA, July 15—2 P. M.

The reported mutiny among the rebels at Fort Delaware is believed to be untrue. Gentlemen from there last evening say that they heard nothing of any disturbance.

TORONTO, July 15.

The statement in some of the United States papers that the Canadian banks were about to suspend specie payment, is without the least foundation. They were never stronger than at present. Their last official statement shows over $7,000,000 in gold on hand, against $4,000,000 at the same time last year. The total assets are over $60,000,000. Liabilities $31,000,000.

WASHINGTON, July 15.

The committee of ways and means has a recommendation before them urging the necessity of congressional legislation to relieve the specie market. No official action of the committee has yet been taken upon the subject, but it is known that some of the members are opposed to the project, preferring to leave the matter to cure itself, and others are in favor of issuing $2.50 treasury notes.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 11.

A spy was captured yesterday afternoon by some telegraph men.

Our gunboats have been shelling the woods along the banks of the river. Only one gun was seen to be fired by the rebels.

A schooner, seized at Harrison's Landing yesterday by order of Gen. McClellan, was sent to Baltimore, with all her cargo. She had liquors aboard, and belongs to sutlers.

There was a skirmish at Williamsburg, Friday, between federal and rebel pickets. Three rebels were killed and seven taken prisoners. About 200 laborers came down from the army on their way north. Gens. Richardson and Gorman paid a flying visit here, to-day. They return immediately to the army. Hospitals are being rapidly constructed at Hampton. Cols. Forney of Louisiana and Williams of Virginia, and Capt. Murphy of Alabama, have arrived here from Harrison's Landing, they were wounded and taken prisoners at Williamsburg.

NEW YORK, July 15.

Flour market active and 5c better; 4,50 a4,70 super western, 5,00a5,10 common to medium extra western.

Wheat market 1c better, and more doing; 1,05a1,09 choice Milwaukee club, 1,21a1,124 winter red western.

DEATH OF CAPT. W. MOORE.—The Black River Falls Banner gives the following account of the death of Capt. Moore, commanding company G, 10th Wisconsin volunteers:

On the 3d day of July the company were at Larkinsville, Alabama, guarding a railroad track. It is the custom, before the passage of every train, to detail men to patrol the track and see that all is right. On this day private Coleman, brother-in law of Capt. Moore, and another soldier, were detailed for this duty. They did not return at the usual hour, and did not come in that night.

The next morning, July 4th, Capt. Moore, with thirty-three men, were detailed to go out and look for Coleman and patrol the track. There are bushes and second growth timber along the sides of the track, in some spots quite thick. The captain divided his men into two squads of sixteen each, and placed them on each side of the track, while he and the other soldier took the track a little in advance of the others, and all proceeded on their way. They had gone three or four miles at about eight o'clock in the morning, the captain and man some distance agead. Suddenly two rebels sprung up, one on each side of the track, with their guns cocked and covering the captain, and demanded their surrender. As they were taken at a disadvantage, they had no alternative but to do as ordered. They were then commanded to sit down on the track, with their guns upright, as though engaged in conversation—the object of the rebels being apparently to decoy on the remainder of our squad, supposing that there were probably a half dozen out. Capt. Moore had a gun and was in his shirt sleeves, and his rank was therefore unknown to the rebels.

Soon the rebels discovered our men approaching, and saw that they were outnumbered; they rose and said to Capt. Moore and his boy, "follow us." The boy started to go, and said, "Come on, captain." Upon hearing this, the rebels turned and fired, with fatal effect upon Capt. Moore. He was shot directly in the breast. He sank down, and as our boys rushed up, he said, "Boys, I'm hurt; follow the enemy." The boy with the captain escaped unhurt. Our soldiers fired upon the rebels, killing three and took seven prisoners.

From papers and a muster roll found with the rebels, it appears that they were of a party of guerrillas. On one of them was found a note from Coleman to Capt. Moore, saying that he was taken prisoner the day before, and was safe. The fate of his comrade is unknown. There were also found letters implicating some of the strongly pretended Union men of that vicinity, men whose property had been protected at our hands, who were secretly organizing these guerrilla bands against us. Among these were a Dr. Buchanan and Mr. Larkins.

The death of Capt. Moore is an unprovoked assassination, and should be avenged with direful vengeance.

FOURTH OF JULY ADDRESS AT BELOIT.—The oration delivered by J. C. Converse, Esq., at Beloit, on the fourth of July, is published in the Courier, which thus speaks of it:

The address will amply repay perusal by those who did not have an opportunity to hear it delivered, and indeed, by those who did. As a speaker Mr. Converse has but few equals in force and effectiveness of style, and upon this occasion, he seemed to have entered into the spirit of his subject with more than his usual earnestness.—Avoiding the frothy style of oratory heretofore so common on such occasions, he reviewed the past and present condition of the country, with a fidelity admirably in keeping with the trying ordeal through which the country is passing. That his earnest appeal in behalf of the Union was not made to listless hearers, is evident from the profound attention with which it was listened to throughout, and the unusual approbation which is expressed concerning it.

MILITARY ITEMS.—Commissions have been issued to 1st Lieut. Albert E. Smith as captain of company B, 8th regiment, vice Conger, resigned. (Promoted for distinguished coolness and bravery in action.)

Sergt. D. Conger as 2d lieutenant company B, 8th regiment, vice Webster, resigned.

Sergt. D. A. Kennedy, 2d lieutenant company I, 8th regiment, vice Lathrop, resigned.

Byron W. Telfair, 2d lieutenant 20th regiment.

NEW METHOD OF GIVING CHLOROFORM.—At a recent meeting of the obstetrical society in London, Dr. Simpson described a plan of administering chloroform which he has adopted in preference to that at present in use. The present method is to fold up a handkerchief and pour into the hollow a quantity of chloroform, and then hold it at some distances from the face, so as to admit of atmospheric air being inhaled with the vapor. The new plan is to lay a single layer of handkerchief over the face, and let the chloroform fall on it drop by drop. The advantages are these: 1. That there is less danger to the patient from the small quantity applied at a time. 2. That anæthesai is more speedily produced.—3. That the quantity of chloroform required is less. Various gentlemen who had made trial of the plan confirmed the value of this process; and Dr. Young, in particular, stated that he kept a patient narcotized for ten hours with two ounces and a half of chloroform.

ILLINOIS FISH POND.—In the report of the committee on farms of the Illinois state agricultural society, we find the following account of an artificial fish pond on the premises of Messrs. Overman & Mann, of Bloomington:

Fifty by one hundred feet scooped out of a low place in the prairie, and which is supplied with water from the mole drains running through the depressions of the prairie swells. The pond is six feet deep, and stocked with catfish, some of which are now fifteen inches long, bass, silversides, perch and horse fish. Thousands of our prairie farms can have just as good ponds with a trifling outlay, and which will at the same time furnish an abundant supply of water. Until we saw this pond we had no idea such a luxury could be had upon our farms, but now we are positive that it is of easy attainment and the thing must be done. The earth must be either wheeled or hauled out; and this must be done in winter or other leisure time; a small hand pump will be needed to keep the water out while excavating the pond.

FIVE BROTHERS IN ONE REGIMENT KILLED.—Five brothers in the 5th Vermont regiment, of the name of Clayton, were killed in the recent Virginia battles.

A HEAVY IRON BLAST.—The miners are now drilling a shaft in the Burt mountain, belonging to the Lake Superior company, for blasting purposes, which it is intended to be from thirty-six to forty feet deep and six inches in diameter. When finished an immense quantity of powder will be inserted, and a slow match applied, the effect of which will be to throw down nearly the whole side of the mountain. The labor required to bring about this result will be better understood when it is known that the shaft is being drilled through almost pure iron.—Lake Superior Journal.

Mr. T. F. Wells, of Boston, has just completed a contract with the government by which he agrees to raise the vessels sunk at Gosport navy yard and in Hampton roads. The value of property sunk, upon which he proposes to operate, amounts to over a million of dollars. Mr. Wells is to commence at once, and is to receive 45 per cent. salvage from the government on the value of all property recovered. The undertaking involves an outlay by the contractor of sixty thousand dollars before commencing the work. He will employ something like two hundred men, among whom will be twenty divers, who will descend to the sunken ships in the Wells & Gowen submarine armor. Such vessels as are not raised will be blasted with gunpowder, and all the material that is of value recovered.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

SPECIFICATIONS

For grading Main Street, in the Third Ward, south of Racine Street, and between that Street and Section Line of Section 36.

The center of the roadway shall be cut and excavated at such places as are indicated on the profile of said street and the earth removed therefrom to, and deposited in, such places as are marked "fill" on the profile of said street, so that, when completed, the roadway shall present one true surface, lengthwise, as indicated by the grade line established for said street and on file in the city clerk's office. If sufficient earth shall not be obtained by the cutting in said street to do the necessary filling, the residue of earth needed for filling shall be hauled and deposited on said street from such places as may be indicated by the aldermen of the 3d ward, not exceeding 20 rods distant from said street. The gutters of said roadway are to be excavated to the depth, on each side of the road, indicated by the profile thereof, and the earth removed to such places in the road as need filling. When completed the roadway shall present one uniform surface crowning from the gutter bottoms to the center line. The center line and the line for the grading of the gutters are represented on the plan herewith, which is made part of these specifications.—Dated June 26th, 1862.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of,

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully Illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.
